Hi Ellen,

Please reconsider. Providing me with copies immediately is required by the Brown Act at section 54957.5(a).

If that's not a sufficiently convincing argument for you consider that the files are sitting on your communication director's hard drive, which makes them public records. The opinion of the presenters is irrelevant per the CPRA at section 6253.3. Just in case you're thinking they're trade secrets or proprietary information or some other such putatively exempt category, please consider that an essential element of those kind of exemptions is an attempt to keep the material secret, which obviously presenting them in public while being filmed is a waiver of.

Thanks,

Hi [REDACTED]

The BID does not have permission to distribute either presentation that was made at today's Board meeting.

Good afternoon, Ms. Riotto!

I am hoping you will send me by return email a copy of the PDF that Sonder used for its presentation this morning as well as the PPT or whatever format it was that the other presenter on the convention center used.

Thanks!
